THE TOWN'S PEOPLE

DR. RICHARD BOLT

"And still the wonder grew, That one small head could carry all he knew", expresses perfectly the feeling inspired by Dr. Richard Bolt of 34 Temple Street, whose conversation is frequently in those x and y equations that are a mystery to most men but that lead to such inventions as the robot plane.

Dr. Bolt, B.A., M.A., and Ph.D., all from the University of California at Berkeley, has worked with life-saving rather than death-dealing inventions. Indeed, his work in underwater sound done in connection with the Navy instruments by which the unquestionably saved the lives of proach of submarines was detected many United States soldiers; indeed, there would have been no robot plane.

In wartime, says Dr. Bolt, engineering advances are a process of the beginning of the war on leave make these advances depends on of absence from the University of basic knowledge, on fundamental research which must be done in peacetime. From the Navy's point of view any line of research is useful. To the Navy, basic research is an intelligent way of spending money. Had it not been for fundamental research, there would have been none of those

LIET. MELLO EXPLAINING RECOIL MECHANISM

National Guard Drive Off to Flying Start

The local National Guard drive is off to a flying start. Last Friday, despite the inclement weather, a six-ton prime mover and two jeeps were at the Arlington High School. The 155mm Howitzer was uncoupled and several of the pupils operated the controls.

The two jeeps did overtime duty riding students about. When unloaded, they looked like a circus demonstration of packing the maximum number of men in the minimum amount of space. The six ton prime mover was never empty and many of the students were anxious to drive.

Success can be measured only in recruits and in the first week seventeen can be counted. They are Clyde Tuff, first to join; George Reynolds, Fred Wright, John Doherty, William Crockett, Kenneth Hoyt, Thomas Finn, Fred Ward, Frank Corelli, Ray Wilton, Paul Salisbury, George Barr, John Donovan, Paul Kuhn, Richard Kelly, Eugene Parsons and William Bowler. With this wonderful response in Arlington, the "A" is putting the equipment and personnel of its battery at the disposal of the town line to the Center and continuing officials to participate in parades and celebrations. This is a great start for operation eighty eight, behind the drive for a battery would speed up traffic out of completely filled by Arlington men. Remember, it is your National Guard, make it the best than can be had.

On Friday, September 30, the M5 tractor will come to Arlington High, since it was missing at the last demonstration. There is no other vehicle used by the Field Artillery that can compare with this high-speed "cat" for mobility and power. Richard Kelly, student at Arlington High, will be there to operate it, since he has already demonstrated an ability along this line.

The display window of the Charles B. Peirham Ford Agency is filled with equipment from Battery "A". Topping the list is that army wonder vehicle, the jeep. Survey, signal and plotting equipment are also there.

PARKING CHANGES ORDERED TO CLEAR BOTTLE NECKS

Selectmen Refuse to Order "No Parking" from Four to Six Because of Inconvenience to Shoppers and Merchants. Police Chief Favors Parking Meters. Chamber of Commerce to Consider Question.

On the recommendation of both with the director and with representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

After these conferences he said in his report to the Selectmen: "Arlington is so far removed from Boston that any benefit we might receive by prohibiting parking between 4 and 6 p.m. would be greatly offset by inconvenience to the citizens of Arlington who wish to shop in this area as well as by loss of business by the merchants."

Favors Parking Meters
To the Advocate, the chief expressed himself as in favor of the installation of parking meters. The parking situation, he declares, is getting worse all the time. Because it is hard to find parking places, many citizens are going to Belmont to shop.

Many of those who park overtime, he adds, are the merchants themselves who thereby spoil their own business. In Cambridge, the parking meters have proven very satisfactory.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce have declared themselves in favor of meters and the question is to be discussed at the meeting on October 14th.

News Briefs

Russia goes on the diplomatic defensive as Andrei Vishinsky lashes out at U. S. A. in a blast unmoderate and false. Warren R. Austin, permanent American delegate to U. N., brands the whole Soviet declaration a "libel" and an "absolute falsification of American motives"; probably reached its mark—namely, the people of the Soviet Union.

French Minister Bidault says France will continue as mediator to seek a meeting-ground between U. S. and Russia; finds France in agreement with U. S. on most major issues now confronting U. N.

Secretary-General Trygve Lie appeals to great powers to put aside their differences and closes general debate.

Soviet seeks control over new oil producing territories in Iran. Production of oil in U. S. is one and one-half tons; seven and one-half tons in Russia; twenty-five tons in Venezuela, while in Iran one well gives forty tons of oil per day. Small wonder the hooks of Russia, Britain and U. S. stretch toward Iran.

Prime Minister DeValera of Eire arrives at 10 Downing Street.

Ex-Premier Winston Churchill calls his successor, Clement Attlee "a modest little man with a great deal to be modest about."

A robot plane carrying 14 observers completes a historic 2400-mile flight across the Atlantic. "We just pushed a button, took off and landed."

ABILITY COUNTS

This is National "Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" as the Selectmen proclaim on another page of this issue.

"It's ability, not disability that counts when an employer considers a physically handicapped person for employment," said Arthur P. McLellan, chairman for the week of the Cambridge Area. Handicapped persons made an excellent record in industry during the war when they took the place of men on the fighting front.

Now many of the handicapped are those very men who were then at the front and who received their disabilities there. This is an added reason for hiring them.

Few persons realize that practically everyone is physically handicapped in some way—the man who wears glasses, or one who is hard of hearing, or one who for many other non-visible reasons is unable to accept many types of employment.

In spite of the fact a person may have some physical handicap he still has many abilities that can be utilized which will in no way aggravate his condition or disability. It narrows down to matching a man's ability with a job that he can perform. All the agencies and organizations cooperating in observance of NEPH week can assist and counsel such workers, and when the scale of ability is found or developed they can refer such workers to employers who are in need of that particular skill or ability.

While in the past many employers have been more cooperative in hiring handicapped persons, more jobs are now needed to aid them.

STARS FOR EVER IN THE "SCOREBOARD"

WHAT CAN WE BUY?

Sing a song of sixpence
Prices gone sky high
What can we buy with dollars
To bake in our pie?

Everyone is talking about high prices but no one is doing much about them; we grumble, but we buy. There are hearings at which housewives raise protesting voices against the high prices of foodstuffs, but prices continue to rise—here a cent, there a nickel. Yet, the retailers complain that their profits are lower than ever before.

High prices, says one economist, have always followed war—note the Civil War and World War I. Many families are living on the savings they were able to accumulate during the war when many members of the family were working. When these savings are gone they will no longer be able to buy food at high prices, supplies will be more abundant, prices will come down and, the chances are, the long-dreaded depression will be upon us.

For most of us there is a price at which the thickest, juiciest steak ceases to be tempting. It just isn't worth it. Yet, we must eat. If not steak, what? The answer once would have been the cheaper cuts of meat. Now the cheaper cuts are expensive. They have moved into the luxury class along with cheese, eggs and nuts. Turn vegetarian? Fruits and vegetables are likewise in the higher brackets.

Although it reminds us of Marie Antoinette's famous, "Let them eat cake", one answer seems to be, "Eat less." They're doing it in Europe. We don't need to go to the extremes they are forced to over there; there is a happy medium.

A buyers' strike is the individual's answer to the problem—not an entirely satisfactory one, but helpful. If we buy less and refuse the highest priced articles, we will bring demand and supply into a more reasonable ratio, conserve resources and, perhaps, help to prevent a serious depression, by making the recession more gradual.

Buy only essentials and use the greatest possible economy in food preparation.

Almost no situation is so bad that it can't be helped by a laugh. Edward Devin, writing in the Boston Sunday Herald, has given us that laugh—Though we don't agree with him that the price of cow has jumped over the moon, we think it has struck there and needs to be helped down. However, we like the revised Mother Goose which he offers as coming from the pen of Mr. O'Malley:

"Mary had a little lamb
"Its fleece was white as snow
"She cut it into chops one day
"And now she's in the dough."

"Little Miss Muffet sat on a tuffet
"Munching a sirloin steak
"Miss Muffet was wealthy
"Could afford to be healthy
"She even used eggs in her cake."

"Sing a song of sixpence
"A thimble full of rye
"And if you have a chaser
"The price is in the sky."

"To market, to market
"To buy a fat sow
"Home again, home again
"Flat broke, and how!"

Turkey Dinner and Style
Showing by Paquinose

A savoury turkey dinner, cooked with all the tradition of New England's famous church suppers, was the first fall event sponsored by the Paquinose group of Calvary Methodist Church in the church vestry last night.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Lawrence P. Bliss presented "Jayne's Style Showings", featuring many nationally advertised fashion items which are to be locally in Arlington. Models showed garments in all size ranges from juniors, misses, half sizes, and women's styles.

—Miss Anita Rooney has been appointed one of the registrars for the big rally to be held at the Cambridge YWCA, Central Sq., on Tuesday, September 30th at eight o'clock, when it's open house States.

for all business and industrial girls. Games, folk dancing, community singing and refreshments, in with several brief speakers on "What's Ahead for You" will be followed by registrations for the interested groups.

Report from Europe

by
Mason R. Smith
An on-the-scene report to the ARLINGTON ADVOCATE, as a member of the National Editorial Association.

Precision
Geneva, August 3
After visiting Ireland, England, Portugal, Spain and Italy, it is a genuine relief to enter Switzerland, for it is the only country among this group which seems most like home. It is a land of sound money (the Swiss franc is second only to the dollar on the exchanges of Europe), and there is little poverty. In this two-class country, there are few rich people and very few poor. The major portion of the population is middle class. As my guide remarked in Lucerne (he had spent 22 years in the States as a mess sergeant in World War I and as a chef in San Francisco thereafter), "the only trouble is keeping up with the Joneses."

But the real beauty of Switzerland, from the social standpoint, is that its people are thrifty, industrious and settled in their form of government. The whole country, as you traverse it from East to West appears to have been put together with the same care and precision as a fine Swiss watch.

The analogy is, I think, an excellent one, for this is a land of many jewels of natural scenery. For the most part it is mountainous, with many magnificent views, and numerous beautiful lakes. A tourist paradise; it offers transportation of every kind to take you close to every view worth seeing. You can travel up and down the hairpin curves of the mountains in very comfortable buses, you can ride from peak to peak on aerial cable cars, and you can move from one place to another by train or steamer.

Country "Kept Up"
The precision is evident in the way the entire country is "kept up." Most of the farms are small, and the larger portion of the harvesting is done by hand. Every available inch of tillable land is used, and not infrequently you see whole families cutting the hay on steep hillsides which in America we would consider uneconomic or impossible to mow. They live in an aura of extreme beauty, with tall mountains in the background, their own chalets and farm buildings nestled among the smaller hills. And once the hay is done, from a passing train the fields look as green and carefully mowed as a golf course in the States.

You see few farm buildings which look run down. In the munity singing and refreshments instead of being allowed to fall into decay as they often are in other European countries, are kept in a perfect state of repair.

Champions Teen-Agers
W. B. Barton contributed a letter to the Letters and Pictures column of the issue of Look which was released September 16. Mr. Barton's letter, which champions teen-agers, is as follows:

To the Editor: In Letters and Pictures (Look, June 10) you printed a letter signed by eight teen-agers who protested against the nude bathing suits you pictured. The sarcastic picture you printed to answer them shows that your aim is to play on the baser emotions. Under the guise of art you are contributing to a force that will tear down our homes, our country and Christianity.

I join with the gallant few teen-agers who had the moral courage to face an ocean of evil. God bless them.

Arlington Advocate
Arlington, Mass.
To the Editor:
When leaving the street car at the Center this evening about 6:10 I noticed a wallet on the floor. I passed it to the motorman without having time to look for a name inside.

The number of the car was 5817. I hope whoever owns the wallet will get it back and have better luck than I did when I lost my purse on the Arlington Hts. line.

Miss Alice Carney

Wed at Nuptial Mass

At a nuptial mass September 13th in St. Agnes Church, Miss Alice Mary Carney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Carney of 47 Lake street, was married to Ensign Vincent A. Dolan, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent C. Dolan of Chicago, Ill. Father Keohane performed the double ring ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the Hotel Continental, Cambridge. The bride's uncle, John Powell, was soloist.

In traditional white satin, made with a marquisette yoke and a long train, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her imported French illusion veil was ornamented with orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of white roses and gardenias. Miss Dolores Dolan of Chicago, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore gold moire taffeta and carried a cascade of red roses which matched her headpiece. The bridesmaids were Miss Claire Couture, cousin of the bride, Miss Phyllis Smith, Miss Gloria Tassinari and Miss Mary Quirk, all of Arlington. They wore rose and aqua moire taffeta and carried blue and rose asters to match their headpieces.

Bill Dall of North Dakota, classmate of the groom at Notre Dame, was best man. Ushering were the bride's brothers, Leo and Richard Carney, Ensign Andrew Whitehead, USN, of Rhode Island, and Ensign Joseph Vorn-dran, USNR.

The bride, a graduate of Arlington High School, attended Hickox Secretarial School. The groom, a graduate of Notre Dame, is doing graduate work at M. I. T. They will live at 18 Chauncy street, Cambridge, when they return from a trip to Chicago and Wisconsin.

White-Moran Wedding

In St. Agnes' Church

With the Rev. Frederick G. M. Driscoll, cousin of the groom, performing the ceremony at a nuptial mass in St. Agnes' Church September 13th, Miss Katherine M. Moran, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moran of 66 Beacon street, became the bride of William H. White of 135 Pleasant street, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. White. Mrs. Christopher Nolan was the organist and Miss Heatrice Broulette, the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin over which fell a veil of imported French illusion held by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a prayer book decorated with orchids. Miss Margaret M. Moran, the maid of honor, wore cerise accessories and carried cerise gladioli with her gown of moonstone blue satin.

Thomas K. Lynch, Jr., of Woburn was best man and ushering were the bride's brother, John J. Moran of New York, and Daniel J. Daly, Jr., of Wollaston. The bride is a graduate of the Arlington schools and the groom of Boston University. Following a reception at the Copsey Plaza, they left for a motor trip to Florida. They will live at 135 Pleasant street.

—Miss Patricia L. Caulkins of 111 Jason street left last Wednesday for Northeastern University, Evanston, Ill. She is transferring into the junior class from Skidmore College.

Attractive Bridal Party

When Miss Alice M. Carney recently became the bride of Mr. V. A. Dolan, she was attended by these lovely girls—Miss Dolores Dolan (Maid of Honor), Miss Claire Couture, Miss Gloria Tassinari, Miss Phyllis Smith and Miss Mary Quirk.

Browne-Lynch Wedding

In St. Paul's Church

A rose wedding was that of Miss Patricia M. Lynch, daughter of Mrs. Bernadette Lynch of Cambridge and James Daniel Browne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Browne of 840 Massachusetts avenue, which took place on September 14th. St. Paul's Church, Cambridge, where Fr. Kenney performed the double ring ceremony, was decorated with American beauty roses; the bride carried white roses with an orchid at the center; the maid of honor carried American beauty roses, and the bridesmaids, red roses.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Gerard Bowman, the bride wore white satin trimmed with Belgian lace inserts and a matching lace coronet from which was draped her illusion veil. Her sister, Miss Geraldine Lynch, as maid of honor, wore a fuchsia hat and gloves with her pale lavender taffeta gown. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Haley, cousin of the bride, and Miss Isabelle M. Neil, were in turquoise taffeta with fuchsia hats and gloves.

The groom had his brother, Richard Browne, as best man. Ushering were another brother, John Browne, and Timothy Haley, II, cousin of the bride.

The bride attended St. Paul's School and Cambridge High and Latin School. The groom, a graduate of the Arlington schools, is a veteran of three and a half years' service in the Army. Following a reception in Chestnut Hall, the couple left for a trip to New Hampshire. They will live in Arlington.

116 Hansa Allee

Frankfurt, Germany

Dear Sirs:

We are indeed grateful for the home-town newspaper that reaches us through the kindness of our folks. It keeps us in close contact with the home news, which always means so much when one is so far from home.

We are one of the many privileged American families that are allowed to be stationed here. Lt. Harwood is with the 772nd Signal Group of Frankfurt, Germany.

We have had a pleasant summer touring France and England, spending a few days in Paris and London.

Over the Labor Day holiday we spent four days driving through Bavaria and Austria, visiting Hitler's home at Berchtesgaden as well as Goering's and Bormann's. The drive through the Alps is beautiful. The city of Salzburg proved very interesting, also.

We are always pleased to be able to catch up on our home news when we return from these trips. Thank you again for your following hand in contract; space, ace, heart, ace and small card, diamond, ace, club, nine including five honors. She bid six no trump and made seven, finding the heart king in dummy's hand. This is one for the book.

Hookset, N. H., Scene of

Dale-Riendeau Wedding

Sunday afternoon of last week in Holy Rosary church, Hookset, N. H., Miss Claire Riendeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Riendeau of Hookset, became the bride of Warren Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Dale of 18 Gloucester street. Father O'Connor, chaplain of the University of New Hampshire, performed the ceremony. This was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, which was beautifully decorated with fall flowers.

The bride's gown of shimmering ivory satin was made with a net yoke embroidered with seed pearls and a fitted bodice buttoned all the way down. Her heirloom veil was of Queen Anne's lace and French illusion and she carried a cascade of white gladioli and orchids. As matron of honor, she had her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Murphy of Hookset. Mrs. Murphy wore brocade-gold moire taffeta and a moss-green laced Juliet cap with an all-round veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze and dull red pom-poms. The bridesmaids—Miss Doris Dale, sister of the groom, and Miss Barbara Vogt, of Roxbury, classmate of the bride—wore gowns of moss-green moire taffeta and head-dresses of bronze gold similar to the matron of honor's. Their colonial bouquets were of bronze pom-poms.

The bride's mother wore a feathered hat of beige and brown with her gown of forest green crepe, while the groom's mother wore a hat to match her royal purple frock.

William P. Dale, Jr., acted as the bride's best man. Ushering were another brother, Edward Dale, and the bride's cousin, Richard Breton of Hookset.

The bride is a graduate of Plymouth Academy and the University of New Hampshire, 1947, son House. Grandparents are The groom, Arlington High Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Cone of 8 Irving street and Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Merriam of South Ac-service, serving three and a half years as navigator on a B26 bomber in the European theater and being discharged with the rank of captain. After his discharge, he went back to the University of New Hampshire where he had completed his freshman year before enlisting. In June he finished his junior year. While there he has been vice-president of the Student Council, president of the Inter-Fraternity Council, and of Theta Kappa Phi. He is a member of Blue Key, senior honor society, and has been on the Dean's List. He will return in the fall to finish his course. On their return from a trip through the White Mountains and Maine, he and his bride will live in Durham in one of the college apartments.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henry Stech (Carmela Jennie Carbone), 69 Broadway, a daughter, September 14, at Symmes.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baldwin White (Mary Eleanor McNamee), 27 Coleman road, a son, September 14, at Symmes.

Vincent DeRosa

Capable Owner of

M & D Cleansers

An outstanding personality in business this season, is the M & D Cleansers, 8 Park avenue, Arlington Heights. Under the very capable management and ownership of Vincent DeRosa, this business has progressed from "just another cleansing shop" to its present listing among the best cleansing establishments in the town.

Recently, when the construction project was underway in the Heights business section, Mr. DeRosa spent many overtime hours catering to his customers. Regardless of the hazards and inconveniences caused by the construction work, he went out of his way for pick-up and delivery service.

The most important point in choosing a cleansing shop is dependability. Here, at M & D Cleansers, is the personification of this point. You may depend on having your articles of clothing "picked up" at your home, you may depend on having these articles cleansed to perfection; then they will be delivered to you 5 hours, 24 hours, or a week later, according to your wishes.

If you demand expert service on your wearing apparel—if you would like to see the highlights restored to your clothing, the natural weave brought out clearly in your suits or topcoats, call Arlington 7780 and rest assured that your clothes are being placed in dependable hands.

Mr. DeRosa is a congenial personality, always eager to please his customers; always anxious to offer the best possible service. Why, then, should you hesitate when cleansing problems arise? Your reporter would say, "M & D Cleansers tried is another customer satisfied!"

Your silks and satins, wools, tweeds, jerseys and gabardines will once more have that "well cared-for appearance" when they are returned to you. You will be proud of your blankets, bedspreads, overdrapes and curtains when you have them cared for by M & D. Don't hesitate when any cleansing problem confronts you. Either bring your soiled articles to 8 Park avenue or call ARL. 7780 for free pick-up and delivery service.

When Art said to his loving mate, "Tomorrow night we have a date", Poor Mary cried in wild despair, "But, dear, I don't know what to wear!"

Then Art said, "Wear your dress of blue; The one I like so well on you—I'll have it cleaned, just wait and see— In just five hours at M & D!"

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

Camp Fire Girls in Arlington joined with more than 360,000 members throughout the country in launching the annual nationwide Membership March Monday, Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Clubbers are enjoying fall reunions with other members of their groups after summer fun at Camp Kiwanis, the Camp Fire Girls resident camp in Hanson, Mass., and also at Menotomy Rocks Park Day Camp. The Membership March will continue through November 30, and includes plans for group hikes, special trips and parties for new members.

Camp Fire Girls, an Arlington "Red Feather" Service offers fun, friendship, and adventure to all girls. Mrs. Marcus Gray, 230 Pleasant street, is chairman of the Arlington District Council.

Pleasant Street Church

Plans Get-Together

The Pleasant Street Congregational church will hold its first all-church social event on September 30th at 6:30 P. M. in the vestry of the church. This will be a "Get-together supper" with all new members accepted into the church since Mr. Colwell's pastorate as honored guests. It is expected that many who have moved away from the immediate vicinity will take this opportunity to renew old friendships. Mrs. Thomas E. Pitre and Mrs. John K. Berry are in charge of the supper which will be cooked by the ladies of the church with the men and boys serving.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Monthly district meeting for the Arlington district Boy Scouts will be held next Wednesday evening at the Robbins Library Hall. This will be the first meeting of the fall season and all scouts are urged to attend to get the line-up on the activities for the coming season.

There will be a scouts week-end at Camp Sachem September 27th and 28th. All scouts who desire to attend should contact district commissioner Horace Hooper.

TROOP FIVE HOLDS FIRST MEETING

"A new season for scouting looms on the horizon" is the description given by Acting Chairman Okerlund of the first meeting of Troop Five at the Junior High School West Gym. Scoutmaster Gavin and his aides Messrs. Lambert and Mansfield met thirty boys and outlined the scout principles as practised in this troop. A survey showed that a dozen boys had continued scouting at various camps, while still more had gone on bicycle trips and overnight hikes during the summer vacation.

Ted Okerlund will serve as senior patrol leader. Johnson and Caldwell as junior assistant scoutmasters. Lawrence Eddy as Scribe and Jones as Quartermaster.

The Troop Committee, not to be outdone, met immediately after the troop at the home of Mr. Dick on Quincy street, to make plans for a real dad and son cookout and troop meeting to be held next Thursday evening at Camp Oak. Dads and scouts will meet at the Five Corners on Park avenue and Bow street at six-fifteen. Anyone needing transportation is asked to notify the scoutmaster at the next meeting.

The plans for the coming season are outlined. Special emphasis is to be given to advancement and to camping. ASM Mansfield will put the troop through their paces in music.

COLLIER NAMED FOR ARLINGTON

Arlington was honored recently by the Mystic Steamship Division, Eastern Gas and Fuel Association, when the company selected the name S. S. "Arlington" for one of its fleet of new Liberty-type colliers.

The "Arlington" is one of ten new colliers recently purchased by the Mystic Steamship Division from the United States Maritime Commission. The Mystic fleet carries bituminous coal from Nelson, Mrs. Lawrence Wessels, Norfolk, Va., to Eastern Gas and Mrs. Alton Rust, Mrs. Earl Jenkins, Mrs. Oscar Swanson, Mrs. Patsy Marchetti, Mrs. Harold Thomas, and Mrs. A. Leonard Anderson.

Garden Club Show Makes

Town Hall Place of Beauty

Robbins Memorial Town Hall foyer, auditorium and corridor were transformed into a place of beauty last week Wednesday for the annual flower show of the Arlington Garden Club. From the great vases of pink gladiolas from G. O. Anderson and Sons in the foyer through the central garden of exotic plants to the stage at the foot of which was a gay row of zinnias, reminiscent of an Indiana roadside, and on which was Trail's End—ferns and moss covered trees set about a stone fireplace with a fishing rod and reel dropped by a log bench—were flowers of all kinds in a variety of arrangements. By the steps at one side of the stage was the formal arrangement of a Beacon Hill garden and at the other a California patio. In one corridor was a tea room where the tables were decorated with the same skill the club members had shown in their competing arrangements.

CIRCULATE PETITIONS FOR PLANNED PARENTHOOD

Massachusetts is one of only two states in the Union having restrictive legislation regarding contraceptive care for married women. In an effort to secure freedom for doctors to prescribe such care and for married women to have the protection of such care when their life or health is endangered, the Planned Parenthood League is seeking to amend the present law by Initiative Petition and Referendum.

The Arlington committee in charge of circulating petitions is: Mrs. Leonard Bradford, chairman; Mrs. Gordon Thompson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Edward Copthorne, speakers' chairman; Mrs. Robert L. Bradford and Mrs. Norris Hoyt. They report that the signature campaign in Arlington is already well under way and that the desired goal of 1500 signatures should be reached by October 3rd.

The proposed amendment will change the old Massachusetts law to permit properly qualified doctors to give contraceptive advice to married women for the protection of life or health. It is emphasized that no doctor will be obliged to prescribe, no patient will be obliged to accept contraceptive care. The proposed amendment is purely permissive, with no compulsion upon either doctors or patients.

What is being sought is "not fewer, but more and healthier babies, medical freedom for doctors to advise on child spacing, and the civil right of Massachusetts parents to obtain such care if they so desire." This change of law is the first step in the broad program for planned parenthood which is described as "a way toward better health and emotional stability for the families of a community offered in the belief that healthy, happy families make good communities."

The bill is supported by more than 1300 doctors in Massachusetts. In a nation-wide poll, 97.3% of the doctors who answered approved of planned parenthood.

Massachusetts church leaders endorse the bill, including the Rabbinical Association of Boston, and the following denominational groups: Baptist, Congre-

The Scoreboard

And Arlington Wins Again

By KILROY

The old story of pupil beating master almost came true last Friday in New Hampshire. "Muz" Massocca, playing for Brewster Academy, ran seventy yards for a touchdown against Tony Sarauky's Manchester team. . . . Hugh Reagan, another ex-Arlington star, is a teammate of "Muz". . . . "Traf" Hicks, Sr., one of the finest athletes that Arlington ever turned out, looked a little sad last Saturday as he watched his Alma Mater lose to Newton. . . . And Dave Shean is stepping right along that baseball trail. . . . His latest jump landed him with Milwaukee, which isn't so very far away from the big show. . . . Billy Mitchell, who used to play a pretty good end for the High School, is now living in California. . . . Billy is playing and managing the local baseball team out there. . . . And his brother Joe left the bachelor ranks last Saturday. . . . Joe was the manager of the first Junior Legion team sponsored in Arlington. . . . While thinking of the Legion—Congratulations to Bill McKeever, who was elected Commander last Tuesday night. . . . One of the old-time football fans claims that Arlington's 1919 football team was undefeated but lost to Peabody in a post-season game. . . . Paul Hendrick, who was a pretty fancy first baseman for Arlington, is with the Standard Brands, Inc. . . . And if you football fans want a good Sunday afternoon's entertainment, take a stroll up to the High School Field and watch the Red Devils perform.

ROSLINDALE RALLIES TO TIE RED DEVILS IN FOURTH PERIOD, 6-6

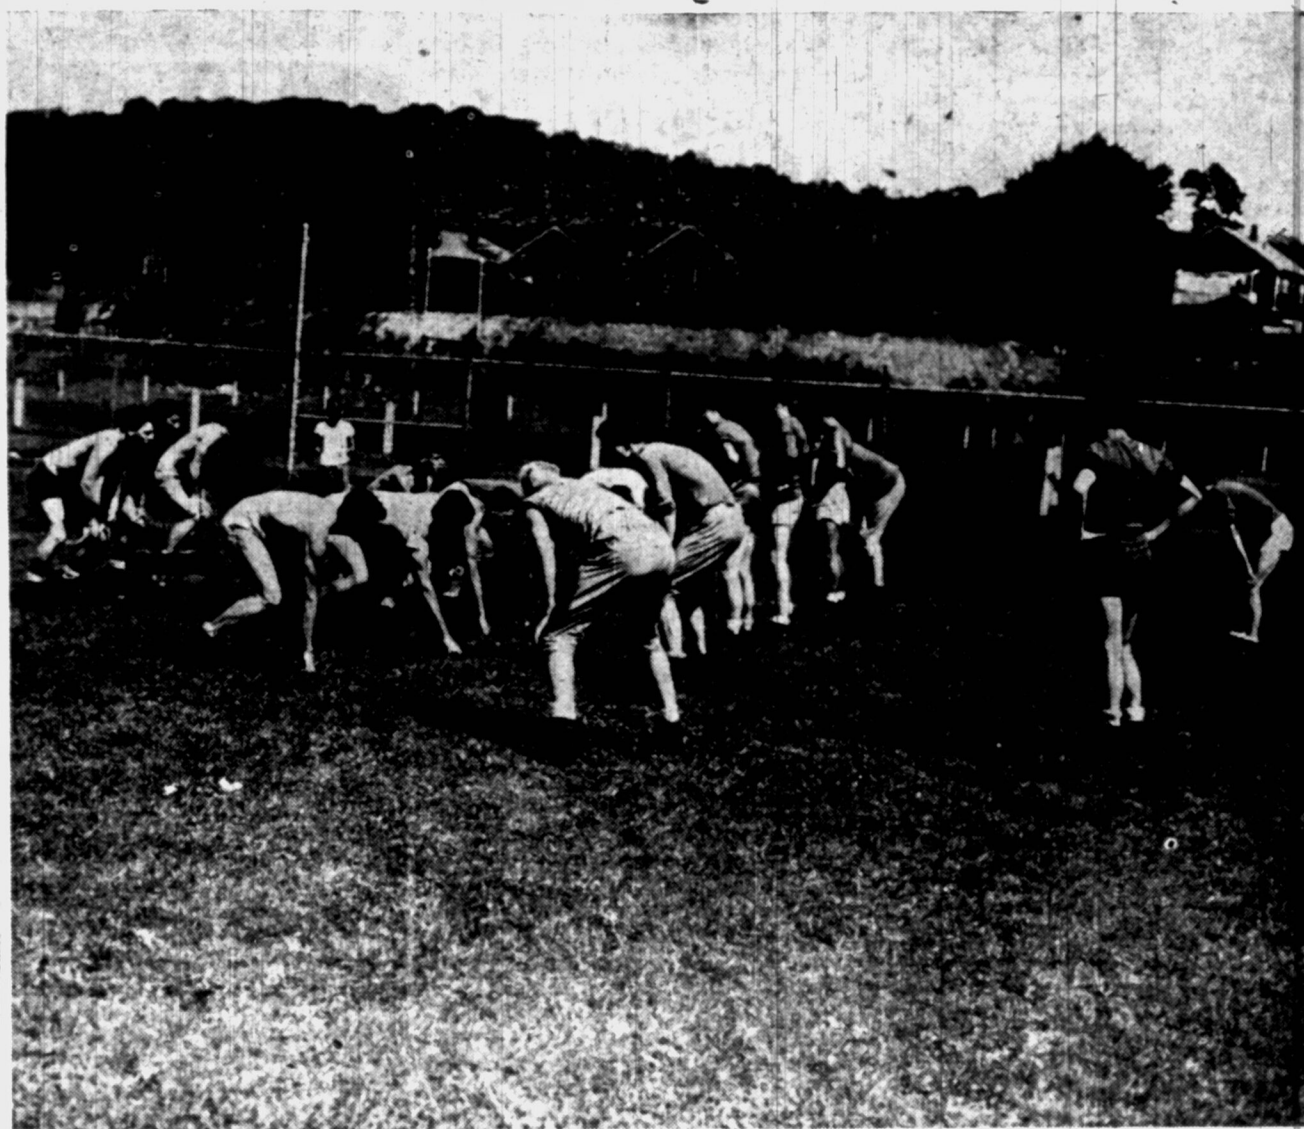

Paul Wells Travels for Yardage. Preston to Shea Pass Scores Third Period Tally. Locals Miss Big Chance in Second Stanza.

Sunday afternoon before a crowd of 2500 fans, the Arlington Red Devils and Roslindale Town Team met in a hard-fought game which ended up in a 6 to 6 tie. The Red Devils had their backs to the wall throughout the first period when a fumble and a penalty called against them for interference on a pass receiver gave Roslindale the ball on Arlington's 35-yd. line.

The strong Arlington line held at this point. After three rushes had failed, Roslindale tried a drive play, with both sides Coyne, Colbert, rg, Cusolitto, playing good, clean, hard foot- ball. In the closing minutes of White; re, Kennedy; qb, Muello, the period Arlington blocked a Graham; lhb, Preston, Vincent, Roslindale kick and recovered on Keefe; rhb, McElaney, Farring- the 4-yd. line. On the next play ton; fb, Wells, Shea.

The second period featured Collins; lt, Keating, Azarian; c, good line play, with both sides Coyne, Colbert, rg, Cusolitto, playing good, clean, hard foot- ball. In the closing minutes of White; re, Kennedy; qb, Muello, the period Arlington blocked a Graham; lhb, Preston, Vincent, Roslindale kick and recovered on Keefe; rhb, McElaney, Farring- the 4-yd. line. On the next play ton; fb, Wells, Shea.

The A. H. S. 1947 Football Season Starts

... with the candidates lined up for a formation drill. The defensive line is a bit relaxed but well spaced. The Red and Gray faces a formidable schedule this year. The first four games are away.

ON THE SIDELINES

Red Devils made six first downs to Roslindale's five.

"Skeets" Vincent was throwing those blocks so hard that the crunts could be heard in the stands.

Jim Kennedy made the longest run of the day (about 45 yards) but the referee claimed the ball was grounded.

Jack Cusolitto seemed to be the victim of circumstances out on the field. A couple of different times the Roslindale backs thought that Jack showed too much aggressiveness. All in all, it was a good Sunday afternoon's entertainment and the fans seemed to like the brand of foot- ball that the Red Devils played.

Next game will be on Sunday when Belmont is the opposition.

EDWARD LEARY Colgate

At Colgate

Ed Leary is making a strong bid at left end on current Red Raider team. Right now, Al Fassnacht, a possible All-American, is holding down the berth.

Leary played with the J.V.'s in '42 and on the varsity in '45 and '46, winning letters both his varsity years.

St. James Girls Clout

Old Timers, 14 to 12

All's well that ends well was the battle cry of the St. James Girls softball team as they defeated a strong Old-timers team 14-12 on last Saturday and Everett at Reservoir Field Sunday. It was breezed, 41 to 9.

Arlington's only hope is a potentially impregnable line. Medford could not dent it; neither could Newton until the closing minutes of last week's game. Then for some unaccountable reason, Newton shot it full of holes and went on to win. The fans will see a good schoolboy version of the "T" Saturday. Everett piled up 307 yds. all collected two hits apiece. Tug- gy Harrington, stellar backstop, got three hits. Mary McDonough, skillfully and hits his marks lib- get centerfielder, thrilled the erally on passes. Joe Carroll, crowd with some nice catches that Bob Merola and Charlie Landers robbed the Old-timers of extra base hits.

Connie Sullivan, Old-timers of a passing attack the first time flinger, was right in his element. Probably this was due to the underhand delivery he uses as leading bowler in the St. too busy piling up tremendous yardage on end sweeps and de- layed bucks. Perhaps the local scouts have Herlihy caught for the Old-timers and the girls had a tough time scoring with the sturdy catcher blocking the plate. Frank Winters hit the left fence which is quite a swipe for soft-ball but unlike his Fords he ran out of power and was forced to stop at third. Eddie Cartullo covered plenty of ground at center and ran the bags with terrific speed, surprising the girls who didn't think their stocky coach could travel so fast.

The girls finished the season with an 8-7 record, playing all comers. Games were played on home and home basis with Melrose, Cohasset, Concord, Winchester, Dorchester, and Roxbury.

The Lineup:
Old-timers: Herlihy, c; Sullivan, p; Winters, lb; Wilson, 2b; Carew, Breen, ss; Seaver, 3b; Armour, lf; Cartullo, cf; Hogan, Walsh, rf.

St. James Girls: M. Seaver, rf; M. Knowles, 3b; R. Rivals, ss; D. Sullivan, 2b; T. Harrington, c; M. Knowles, rf; M. McDonough, cf; P. Stephany, Donohue, lb; B. McMurray, p.

Cross Country Team Ready to Go Friday

Arlington High Cross-country team, coached by "Doc" McCarty, will open its season at Winchester next Friday. The hill and dale- ers, led by Capt. Donald Hardy, is well balanced although inexperienced and shows much promise. Among the boys who are turning in fast times are Capt. Hardy, Dick MacDougall, Joe Grieco, Dave Gott, Roland Wil- son and Karl Tobiasson.

The schedule:
Sept. 26, Winchester at Win- chester; 30, Brookline at Arling- ton; Oct. 3, Belmont at Belmont; 10, Melrose at Arlington; 17, Be- verly at Arlington; 24, open; 31, Championships at Beverly.

CROSS-COUNTRY NOTES
David Gott and Roland Wilson, both sophomores, are turning in the performances. They are the "class" of the sophs.

Brookline comes to Arlington next Tuesday.

Arlington High will be the team to beat for the State Champion- ship in November.

Some of the lads wish they had kept in better shape this summer. The first few trips over the local course cause misery aplenty.

In all the years "Doc" has been coaching, we've never heard even a whispered word that he "burned" out a promising runner. In his 3 and 2.

Perennial champion Art Rog- ers was carried the distance by That's the reason he's absolute J. W. Blackham, the match go- ing to home hole.

NEWTON DOWNS A. H. S. ELEVEN AS LOCALS FAIL TO CAPITALIZE

Red and Gray Lead in First Downs, 13 to 6, and in Yardage Gained, 275 to 116, but Lose, 13-6.

W. C. C. Championship In Semi-Final Stage

The club championship of the Winchester Country Club is en- tering its final stages. The final verdict will be settled in the next two weeks.

In the top half, Joe Monahan, Jr., will face Jack Harvey, while in the lower bracket, defending champion Art Rogers will face Dave Shean, Jr. The latter pulled off the top surprise of the tour- ney by edging the renowned Ed Martin, 1 up in 19 holes. How- ever, the surprise was well- earned. Dave has been working hard on his game this year and he is a tenacious match player.

The tournament committee al- lowed young Joe Monahan an extra week or two to complete his matches, due to his jaunt to the National Amateur at Pebble Beach, California, where Joe played some of the best golf of his career. He went down to de- feat out there after his opponent laid him four stymies over the last nine.

On Saturday, Joe eliminated Jim Harvey, always a formidable contender. Jim's brother, Jack, coaching, we've never heard even a whispered word that he "burned" out a promising runner. In his 3 and 2.

Perennial champion Art Rog- ers was carried the distance by That's the reason he's absolute J. W. Blackham, the match go- ing to home hole.

A partisan crowd of around 6,000 at Dickinson Stadium, in Newton, cheered mightily as Newton downed the A. H. S. elev- en, 13 to 6, Saturday afternoon. The locals won all the statistics except the ball game.

In the second period Scichilone grabbed a Raia pass and raced 52 yards to pay dirt. This was a bit- ter pill for Toz's boys, since they had pushed the Garden City boys all over the gridiron in the first period. Arlington chalked up 9 first downs to Newton's one in the first half.

Raia Plunges
In the fourth period, Captain Raia led his mates to score on a power plunge, climaxing a 30- yard drive in seven plays. How- ever, even then the plays were not really clicking. The yardage was ground out by sheer effort rather than skill.

The locals gambled a few min- utes later and rushed the ball on Newton's 40 on fourth down with 5 to go. The choice of play was the result of a natural desire to break the 6 to 6 deadlock. The play flopped and Newton took over.

At this point Arlington col- lapsed. The home outfit turned on a brilliant display. Collins went for 20 yards, then added 14 more. Nemesis Scichilone rattled off 10 yards and Collins went over on a 14-yd. jaunt.

Town Topics

—Miss Joan Belanger of 11 Hillcrest street, has taken a po- sition as receptionist at the Eye and Ear Infirmary of the Massa- chusetts General Hospital. Miss Belanger graduated from Tufts College in June.

—Harley E. Rice of Stoneham, district governor of the 196th District opened the fall season at Rotary by speaking yesterday noon at the luncheon meeting at the Arlington Boys' Club. His sub- ject was "The Objects of Rotary."

Prize Offered

If this little girl, who is about to embark on a thrilling slide, will come into the Advocate Office, and tell us her name, we have a big surprise for her. She zoomed so fast, she escaped our pho- tographer. Meanwhile, the lad at the bottom of the ladder is shouting, "Come on; hurry up!" The picture was taken at the St. Agnes Parochial School Playground during the Diamond Jubilee Field Day.

"Dear Ruth" Coming To University Theatre

"Dear Ruth," the play that ran for two years and a half on Broadway and about a year and a half in Chicago, has been made into what previewers believe to be one of the biggest laugh hits in the history of film business. Co-starring William Holden and Joan Caulfield, the comedy is due to arrive next Sunday at the University Theatre, with a supporting cast that includes Billy De Wolfe, Edward Arnold, Mona Freeman, Mary Phillips, Virginia Welles, and Nanny O'Morrison. It tells the amusing story of a 'teen-ager's romantic letters to a soldier, written in her sister's name. When the soldier comes home, hilarious complications develop.

Mystery that defies detection, suspense at its highest pitch and goose pimples by the basket-full are all promised film fans when they see "Fear in the Night," the companion film. The veteran Paul Kelly, and rising newcomers DeForest Kelley, Ann Doran and Kay Scott will be seen in the picture's most important roles.

On Wednesday, Review Day, the program includes "Dodsworth" co-starring Ruth Chatterton and Walter Huston with Mary Astor and "Cluny Brown" featuring Jennifer Jones and Charles Boyer.

James Mason, who has taken the film world by storm with his dramatic portrayals, has a new kind of role in "Odd Man Out," which starts Thursday. In direct contrast to his recent movie parts in which he has either played the villain or a "those you love, or hate" character, "Odd Man Out" provides Mason with a powerful yet sympathetic role. He appears as the idealistic leader of an underground Irish army who is badly wounded after a holdup to obtain money for the organization.

"King of Wild Horses," the companion film, features Preston Foster and Gail Patrick.

Seek Arlington Red Feather Girl For Community Fund Campaign

Everyone is talking about the mammoth, community-wide Red Feather Girl Contest to be conducted the next two weeks in the cities and towns affiliated with the Greater Boston Community Fund's mid-October campaign. Open to single women between 18 and 28, the Arlington contest will close by October 11, so that semi-finals may be held in Boston on the afternoon of October 15, and final judging October 18th.

Henry E. Keenan, Arlington publicity campaign chairman, announces that Daniel McFadden, special events chairman, will head the Red Feather Girl contest here. Local contests will be held in most of the 47 metropolitan communities and in the 11 areas of Boston which make up the campaign territory of the fund.

The purpose of the competition is to choose a charming, intelligent and attractive young woman from some Greater Boston community who, by her outstanding personality, character, and civic-mindedness, will be able to symbolize the true spirit of the Greater Boston Community Fund.

The only qualifications for entrants are that they must be single, between 18 and 28, and not associated with the Community Fund in a capacity higher than that of volunteer solicitor or secretary.

After local judges have decided upon the winner in each of the metropolitan communities and Boston areas, she becomes a contestant for the title "Greater Boston Red Feather Girl". Whether she is the final winner or not, she remains "The Red Feather Girl" in her home community, appearing at Community Fund activities and receiving various other honors, details of which are being arranged.

The final winner of all becomes "The Greater Boston Red Feather Girl," receives a screen test, appears on a coast-to-coast radio show, and directs activities of other Red Feather Girls in her suite, which is composed of runners-up. She will also be featured at all important Fund affairs in Boston.

To enter the contest, any young woman in Greater Boston who has a deep feeling of community pride or who has volunteered services in any worthy cause, should fill out the accompanying entry blank. If possible, she should attach a recent photograph of herself and write a short letter explaining why she feels that she is eligible to become the Red Feather Girl.

This material should be mailed to the Greater Boston Community Fund, 100 State Street, Boston, Mass. 02109.

Three Injured When Cars Crashed

Mrs. Madeline Babine of 145 Gray street suffered injuries to the back of her neck and leg, Lawrence Babine injuries to his right leg and Robert E. Latinville injuries to his stomach in an accident yesterday morning. Mr. Babine was driving his sedan on Gray street toward Pleasant street when at the corner of Bartlett avenue a coupe driven by Mr. Latinville hit its left rear wheel. The sedan turned over. Mrs. Babine was taken to Dr. Feeley's office for treatment.

In the afternoon at the corner of Brattle street and Massachusetts avenue there was a four-way accident. A street car hit a sedan; the sedan hit a truck and the truck hit another truck. Damage slight; two occupants of the first truck complained of a shaking-up.

Couples Club Enjoys Cookout

Forty-five members of the Couples' Club—combined ages of each couple to be under eighty—of the Pleasant Street Congregational Church gathered last Wednesday evening in the pleasant yard of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Austin on Bartlett avenue. Co-hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Blakeburn. Mr. Austin as chief presided over the ornamental and utilitarian fireplace while Mrs. Austin and her assistants attended to coffee and salads in the kitchen.

The Women's Relief Corps is holding its regular meeting this afternoon in the Old Town Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Goland have rented their home at 1090 Massachusetts avenue for the next six months and will be at 319 Hobart avenue, Daytona Beach, Florida.

They left town yesterday and will pick their daughter, Mrs. Edward Martin, up in Washington, D. C. She will spend the winter with them.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

In order to become better acquainted with Camp Menotomy where so many Arlington and out-of-town Girl Scouts benefit by the summer camping program, a group composed of members of the Arlington Girl Scout Council and the Leaders' Association paid a most enjoyable overnight visit to the Arlington Girl Scout Camp on Lake Winnepesaukee in the town of Meredith, N. H. Representing the Council and Leaders' Association were: Mrs. Justin McCarthy, commissioner; Miss Mary Leveroni, camp director; Mrs. Ruberta Norris, chairman of the Camp Menotomy committee; Mrs. Harold Yeames, Mrs. James Kidder, Mrs. Walter A. Alsen, members of the Camp Committee; Mrs. Robert Penny, Mrs. Lewis Beaumont, Mrs. P. M. It is a great boon to Hillschoolers living in the Fordham street district.

—A bus ride to Brooks Village, Medford, the other day, revealed the fact that during certain hours of the day one no longer needs to walk through Harvard street, Medford, to make connections with the Metro. This bus runs from the center from 6:45 to 9:00 A. M. and from 12 to 6:45 P. M. It is a great boon to Hillschoolers living in the Fordham street district.

—Among the 500 students who enrolled at East Northfield last week for the opening of the 69th academic year at Northfield School for Girls was Caroline Wunderly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Wunderly of Lincoln street.

—The Misses Lena W. and Alice Grace Lenk have returned this week to their home at 7 Chapin street from their summer home, Sprucewood, Boothbay Harbor, Maine.

—Douglas L. Russell of 105 Broadway, a senior in the Tufts College School of Liberal Arts, has been named to the Dean's List for the term which ended in June. He received Dean's List recognition for the preceding term as well, and is a football letter man.

—Miss Jeanne Tufts, the daughter of Mrs. Bowen Tufts, 120 Hutchinson road, has taken up her duties as head of the department of dramatics at the New England Conservatory of Music, which opened Monday. Miss Tufts has returned from a trip to New York and New Haven, and is again occupying her apartment in Cambridge.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Whitman of 59 Ronald road have returned after spending ten days in Bar Harbor, Maine.

The home of Judge and Mrs. John G. Brackett at 87 Pleasant street has been reopened after being closed while the family were on vacation.

—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Woodrow (Mrs. Peter Baker's daughter) of Princeton, N. J., formerly of Maple street, have a three-week-old son named William Kellar. The three other children are Peter, Judith and Richard. Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Woodrow is home, getting along nicely and taking care of her new son herself.

—Edmund L. Frost, Sears Walker of Winchester and Leonard Wood were week-end guests of Paul Vonckx at Hingham. Golf and contract took up their time. Mrs. Vonckx and her two children were guests during the stay party at the Ravine street home of Mrs. Frank Walker, Mrs. Vonckx's mother.

—Visiting for the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kane, 26 Mott street, was Mrs. Kane's brother, Gordon Noseworthy, of Northampton. Mr. Noseworthy has just returned from Italy, where he has been stationed for the past year.

—Colonel and Mrs. Myron Chace of 74 Grandview road were the guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Loud of 28 Draper avenue, at their summer home on Lake Attitash, in Amesbury.

—Hartley M. Burnham of 99 Grafton street, a junior in the Tufts College School of Engineering, has been named to the Dean's List for the term ending in June.

Employ the Physically Handicapped Week

Selectmen's Proclamation

WHEREAS, Victory in World War II cost us more than 2,000,000 casualties, and WHEREAS, there are, in addition, many handicapped persons in the United States, many of whom, by their efforts, aided greatly in manufacturing the tools of war, and

WHEREAS, a number of the casualties are citizens of our community, and

WHEREAS, all of these handicapped citizens, veteran and non-veteran, deserve self-supporting, self-respecting jobs in which they may make useful contributions to our community, state, and nation, and

WHEREAS, the President of the United States and the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts have designated October 5th to 11th as Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and I call upon all local officials, employers, organizations and all citizens to assist in every way possible, to the end that the attention of the community will be focused on the fact that disabled veterans and handicapped civilians are fully capable of efficient, safe and reliable performance in many different occupations.

And I urge all citizens and in particular, the employers of our community, to cooperate actively with our local Inter-agency Committee for the observance of Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. And I further urge that all employers place their job openings with the Employment Office operated by the Massachusetts Division of Employment Security located at 1416 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, that disabled veterans and other handicapped workers may be given an opportunity to prove that when placed in the right jobs, they are not handicapped but instead are safe workers who make good production records because they stay on the job.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Croft and their children, Brenton and Marilyn, of 39 Kenilworth road, spent last week-end at their summer home on Cape Cod.

—Mrs. William Richmond and her two daughters, Kate and Mary Alice, of 75 Claremont avenue, visited relatives in Jaffrey, N. H., over the week-end.

—Mrs. Frank Conway of 14 West street and Mrs. Hubert Danton of 354 Mystic street spent the week-end on Long Island as guests of Mrs. Conway's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson. The Wilsons returned with the Conways and are making them an extended visit.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fellmy (Catherine Blasdale) and their son, Bobby, of 104 Claremont avenue, returned recently from a week's vacation at Eastham, on the Cape.

—Philip Belanger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Belanger of 11 Hillcrest street, returned to school Monday after being laid up with a broken collarbone and dislocated shoulder. The injuries were sustained when a locker fell over on him just before service at St. Paul's Cathedral in Boston, where he is a choir boy.

—On his fifth birthday last Friday, Ronald Gerbrands celebrated with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gerbrands, 96 Ronald rd. Guests were Jacqueline Sagan, Clyde Ward, and Susan and Harry Center. The same group met on Wednesday at 104 Ronald road for a small party in honor of Susan Center's fourth birthday.

—Recent guests of Mrs. Anna Marie Campbell at 120 Ronald road were her niece, Mrs. Genevieve Litchfield and her daughter, Genevieve, of Boston.

Urges Contributors to Send Checks To Salvation Army Fund Treasurer

HERBERT O. ALDERSON

In order to insure a complete success here for the Salvation Army, Herbert O. Alderson, general chairman for Arlington in the 1947-1948 Greater Boston Appeal for $500,000, urges all residents to forward their contributions to the treasurer, Edward C. Hildreth, Arlington National Bank. Checks may be made payable to The Salvation Army.

Mr. Alderson says, "Arlington's quota of $6000 will be reached only if all cooperate as a unit especially in view of the fact that one of the top leaders is ill. There is no surer way of insuring your participation in Arlington's demonstration of approval for all that The Salvation Army performs than by forwarding your contribution to the treasurer if a volunteer worker has not called at your home as yet."

The complete organization is made up of the following besides Mr. Alderson and Mr. Hildreth: Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Morris, residential chairman; Harold N. Anderson, special gifts chairman; Dr. Donald Horley, chairman of the business and professional groups; Miss Mary F. Hayes, municipal chairman.

Discussing the Appeal, Campaign Headquarters says, "The amount sought represents about half of the expenditures of The Salvation Army in Greater Boston for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1948. The other half, The Salvation Army is confident of raising through its own institutional operations and other sources."
